

FDI WORLD DENTAL
CONGRESS.
Sept. 14 -17.2011
CENTRO BANAMEX-

SECTION DEFENCE FORCES
DENTAL SERVICES.
ANNUAL MEETING.
Sept.11-13.2011.
CENTRO BANAMEX-
MEXICO CITY.

ABSTRACT AND SUMMARY FORM

TITLE	ORGANIZATION AND OPERATION OF DENTISTRY IN THE MEXICAN ARMED FORCES.
Author(s)	Colonel Ernesto I. Villalobos DDS Chief, Section of Dentistry, General Office Of Medical Service, Mexican Army. Angelica Mireles, DDS Chief of the Dentistry Section, General Office Of Medical Service, Mexican Navy.
Abstract:	Dentistry in the Armed Forces in Mexico has been a pioneer in the multidisciplinary model of patient care as well as its equipment and organization, participating in the difficult task of military personnel and their dependents are fully healthy. Throughout the history of the Health Service in our Armed Dentistry Institute managed to place as a necessity for the military dental care, with different steps of creating this service, achieving their framing of the Dental Surgeons in the operating units of the Army. Creating the Military School of Dentistry forming deep institutional role and patriotic military characteristics are developed that meet the needs of the service. During his career path have the opportunity to make a specialty in Military Graduate School of Health, increasing the training of specialists to be assigned to various military hospitals and infirmaries, with specialties in Pediatric Dentistry, Endodontics, Orthodontics, Periodontics, Prosthodontics and Maxillofacial Surgery. Counting Specialties Dental Unit, where they exercised all specialties to be a governing body for dentistry in our Armed Forces.
Summary:	This presentation shows the history and evolution of dentistry in our Armed Forces as well as multiple units and dentist in the daily activities in our Mexican Armed Institute Keywords: Dentist, Armed Forces.