TITLE	The Usefulness of Dental traveling clinic of Republic of Korea Army
Author(s)	LCol LEE IL GU Dental Chief, Republic of Korea Army
Abstract:	The troops of Republic of Korea Army are divided into many small units. The small units don't have a dental clinic, and only the divisions have dental clinic. The soldiers of a small unit has to go to the division clinic by a shuttle bus in order to take care of their dental condition. But it isn't easy that the soldiers visit military dental clinic. To overcome this problem, the ROK Army has created dental mobile bus, and employed mobile dentistry. Within the bus, there are a dental chair, periapical X-ray and storage closets in a dental bus. Military dental officers can treat every dental diseases. Moreover dental hygiene sergeant teaches TBI during their visit to barracks. In war, although combat units often move to a new post, and dental bus is an excellent mobile equipment to accommodate such conditions. Key wods : Dental traveling clinic, Dental mobile bus
